ANTI-CHINESE BILL Passed by the Sel ate Yesterday-Proceed-

Senate had been retained. The report was adopted.

Mr. Conger, from the Commerce Committee, reported favorathy, with an amendment, Mr. Nye's bill reducing the fees on shipping, renealing the tonings tax on vessels trading with Canada, and also the hospital tax of farty cents per menth on a sailor. The committee amendment retains the latter attwenty cents per month.

The political disabilities did came up as the first in order on the calendar, and after a maphing discussion upon whether the discossion should proceed during the time reserved for the calendar, the pending question was stated to be upon a motion to refer the bill to the Judiciary Committee.

After discussion the subject went over without action.

The anti-Chiosse bill came up as unfinished business, the quostion being upon concurring in the amendmentatriking out the fifteenth section, which construes the words "Chinese laborers" to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers and Chinese laborers" wherever used in the act to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers and Chinese laborers" wherever used in the act to mean both skilled and unskilled laborers and Chinese employed in mining. The section was retained—yeas, 20; nays, 35. The negative vote was made up of Democrats, with Miller of Callfornia, Jones of Newdas, Chileott, and Cameron of Wissonian. Mr. Davis, of Illinois voted "ay" with the Republicans.

Mr. Schminnia moved to insert "persons usually Mr. Schminnia

Wisconsin. Mr. Davis, of Illinois voted "ay" with the Roundleans.

Mr. Edmunds moved to insert "persons usually suggest in manual labor," as a definition of the term "laborers." Not agreed to—17 to 28.

Mr. Edmunds moved to emend the naturalization section so as to read: "Nothing in this set contained shall be construed to change the existing naturalization laws so as to admit Chinese persons to citizenship." He said his purpose was to leave the law just as it is now, and thus avoid what might prove an unhappy precedent. Congress had never, by an adhrastive declaration, prohibited any persons from naturalization being salely such persons as and not been specifically admitted to the privilege.

Mr. Ingulis moved to medify the penalties for knowingly bringing a Chinese laborer to this country so as to omit the fricture of a vessel, thereby protecting innecent owners from the consequences of the unlawful act of the vessel master.

Mr. Laplan moved to insert the following:

requences of the unlawful act of the vessel master.

Lest.

Mr. Lapham moved to insert the following:

"The provise is of this act shall be open and unbject to modification from time to time as may be found necessary, and as may be assented to by the representatives of the two governments, as provioled in the fourth article of the treaty proclaimed betober 5, 1581. Not agreed to.

The bill then passed—yeas, 82; nays, 15. The Important Notice.

It is understood that the Pennsylvania Railroad contemplates the establi-moent of a fast afternoon train from this city to Philadelphia and New York, which will be a very popular one. It will start from the Baltimere and Potomac Railroad station at about four or quarter after in the after noon and arrive at Philadelphia about eight and New York about half-pastien. New York is a little New york about hair-pasten. New york is a little too far away to get hore and back the same day, but Philadelphians will be able to leave hothe in the morning and arrive here shortly after eleven, giving them about five hours in Washington, and get them home again in time for tea. This train will probably commence running May 8.

will sell at auction six of the most desirable lots will sell at auction six of the most desirable lots in the suburbs, situated on Kennesaw avenue, Just south of Mount Fleasant. This section, which has become so rapidly built up with lovely residences, is destined to be Westington's most fash-tonable suburb, and the precisibility that he President's mansion will be built in that neighborhood adds to the desirability of property there. Persons of limited means who desire comfortable homes will find it to their advantage to attend the sale.

Is Theophilus Youngs a Bigamist? Another complication turns up in the much complicated Theophilus Youngs case. It appears from the docket of A. E. L. Keese, formerly a justice of the peace, that on November 25, 1873, a warrant was placed in the hands of Defective Clarvos to arrest Theophilus Youngs, on em-phaint of May J. C. Youngs, charsing him with bigarny in having, while she was his lawful wife, married in Baltimore, Amanda A. Brumel, Roy. H. Schelb performing the cereinony. Now the question is lag to per patette Youngs a bigamiat?

Laborers Want Increased Pay. pany, at a meeting for the purpose of consulting about getting more money for their labor, agreed to notify their employers that the men will refuse to work after this menth unless they receive in-creased wages. The graders have agreed that after the 1st of May they will not work unless they get $2 per day, and the ironers, tampers, rollers, and shovelers want $1.50 per day. They say they yant to let the contractors know before they put their bids in for work.

Hubens Corpus for a Child. Yesterday Chief Justice Cartter directed a writ of habeas corpus to issue to W. D. Crampsey, com-manding him to produce the body of Blanche M. Street, dampher of Strait, daughter of the petitioner, N. A. Strait, before the court by ten o'clock to-day. The per-tioner shows that a divorce was granted his wife in 1875 with the cu. tody of the child. Last March the wife died and the child was given to her grandfather to take care of, who now refuses to surrender her to her parent.

The Elibourn Case. The argument on the motion for a new trial in the Kilbourn-Thompson case will be heard to-day in the Circuit Court, provided Senator Voorhees, of counsel for Mr. Kilbourn, who is with the President at Forfress Monroe, and is expected to be here about noon, arrives in time to take part in the argument.

The Supreme Council is now holding its fifth annual session in Baltimore. It is a secret beneficial order, numbering between 35,000 and 35,000 members. It was organized in 1877, and by strict systematic business principles has grown to its present proportions. In the District of Columbia there are five councils, with a membership of about 300. It pays $5,000 on the death of a member, and with a graded scale of assessments has averaged since organization less than eight assessments per annum. The officers of the Supreme Council are: Supreme regent, A.E. Keyes, of Ohio; supreme vice-regent, William S. Tennant, of Michigan; supreme orator, Thomas W. Davis, of Pennsylvania; past sourceme regent, Julius M. Swain, of Massachusetts; supreme secretary, W. O. Robson, of Massachusetts; supreme chaplain, T. F. Shepard, of Michigan; supreme warden, E. M. Crawford, pro tempore, of Massachusetts; supreme sentry, H. E. W. Campbell, of Ohlo; supreme rather of Massachusets, and John J. Wright of Virginia, all of whom were in the party, many being accompanied by their wives and other lady members of their family.
